Sunday, January 1

Slept lightly after hearing from Meddy and Martin when they called yesterday, of Helen Crumley's ^{IDOG TAK DUE} various condition and the rest that she has made. Up 8:30, feeling less tired than previous mornings. C. A. talk by tel.
w. Mrs. N. call who insist, as going to see Helen in Paris next Tuesday.
In spite of what C. told her of Martin's opinion that she is just the kind you need as visitors. Walk across Park to Hyde Park Gates & back. Sherry before lunch. While at lunch, Mr. Crumley called up from Paris to ask us to try to dissuade Mrs. Nicoll from going. C. answered telephone and said Mrs. N. insisted on coming. C. A. talked about education. Then we both went to rest and slept deeply and loosely refreshed. After tea and after dinner I marked on description of marines for front jacket flap.
We had had a very useful talk before dinner. Five letters better now that more ashes have accumulated and wood is dryer. Did not get to bed until 12:30 and still felt fresh and well awake.

My brain seemed congested and though I did not weary as much think I could not get to sleep for a long time and then only lightly waking up soon. Got up 8.30. Finished breakfast and almost at once set out and walked across Park to 3, where I met Mr. Powell with van and gave him the daggers he has bought for $15 which he paid me in cash. Took no train by bus. Called up Richard Medley who says at 3, going through and I should get my $2000. This month.
He is waiting for Perkins report from Genl. C. not shopping & came home only at lunch time.
Went on just. Received description after and Mr. M. Brown. C. at 3 Read French translation of part of Swedish book on California upheld by Knapp Fisher. Dunks and damped check after dinner Bed before 11.0°C

Tuesday, January 3

Slept well. Got things together to take to office etc. W. Knapp.
Foster on China, Palestine book.
To office by 73 bus and left back at 11:30 and greeted Victor, Funnell, Barab and Mr. Dabson. To Caputo Corners and left. Saw books and expended and stated to Caputo mosaic book. G. out at Ladies Lunch. Durn, marmen, Ethel Shabs called up to Longways about Helen. After lunch, tel.
Josselyn to clean my marble table. W. Coates by Gerard and chair w. things sent up by Miss Brown. G. came home late for tea after being wonderful Italian film. Then Doreen Thames. I spent 1 1/2 hours after tea and after dinner closing my accounts and finished April 14 + 9

Wednesday, January 4

I seem to feel particularly tired and up only late intended to go early to office early, but getting things ready etc, I took so much time that I telephoned what I had to say to Samuels & John telling them that I expected to satisfy them in my business but first wanted Till A. look into things & advise me. John spoke of and for some time got mes. and was pleased when said George might come and baggled at his station, as I could start with my car.
To appear merely to leave things ready - e.g. Q. had been washed & put back to his truck like me. After I spent after noon with my Ford Till Blue.
Miss Brown. After tea. W. M. Martin drinks as usual. Q. always waits on the moral side. tea & dinner. After dinner I looked on accounts and finished May 29

Thursday, January 5

Up just before 1 was called at 8 o'clock.
Tom has notice of George Putnam's death but does not give impression of a serious or important person.
To office saw everyone and settled things with Miss Bacon. Out for post immediately. Fr. many etc. To Mrs Harris who cannot use the big purses I bought from Tom or my black sashes. Hubert - got out - sherry. E. Cam. home with help Mrs. Neill arrived for luncheon and we talked about Helen. She leaves for Paris tomorrow. We said we would go if Helen needed us.
Went on my accounts. Feds came to his apt - was very sweet and interested in poor Patience Stewart.
Dinner before dinner. Went on after dinner with accounts completing same. C. always wakes on his back between his and dinner and after dinner reads and sometimes has a nap, but wakes up and often reads till 1 o'clock as she did last night.

Friday January 6

Bellows Jr. Banks & Ambrose intended to go to office but got started attending to post and when C. went out at 12:10 I went with her. She went to Harbors & I took Cheung to pay Mr. Mowd for chain equipment. Saw lady of law with him with Bellows plan to shake him to receipt. They waited around Powell's for C. who loaded heavily at his terminal yard with me. Home lunch on Cheung's & Ambrose. Watched an descriptions of peaches and Marinos. and then settled down to my accounts. Lola Currick came to tea and after a time I went to work in dining room so that C. could talk about Duncan Stewart. Fada telephoned this A.M. that she had heard from Betty that something substantial would be done for Patricia but not to tell. C. to Mowd's after tea. I worked on accounts before & after dinner.

After dinner hunted for blind photographs. Finally found it but against it against Saturday, January 7 taking it Weather still depressingly warm and I put up my lamp. Up at 8 o'clock when called. Cherry returned Helen, Misses, prayers for enemies. Looked at papers and then I went on taxi to an Ft. Langley exp. picture at Burlington Ho. on road of Pomeroy's - Charles and found Col. Dege, Pomeroy etc more sympathetic. Met Shapiro and James & Janet Mac Gibb and had pleasant talk but I shied. Of. Got rather tired. Walked to Billy's but closed. Taxi home & stopped at Public Ho. for bath of skin. Found Peter & Thyrus had come from Gummie's after wonderful night end of party at Bulls. Buchanan and Tim I felt exhausted. Rested a while in chair & then party on account till tea & after. Peter had old cutting up Redy Roads Ball & some drinks and savories sent by Annie.

After dinner accounts & alarmed to find

up late and not finished w. breakfast-etc. till after 11 o'clock.
W. Donahue and Washington Good is writing Hawthorne's "Boat", out for walk past Albert Memorial Rte to luncheon. W. Insurance Co. W. Bank. Sorted my papers.

Elmer Sands arrived before 12 appeared and I greeted him. Peter joined us for tea. Talked of Sinclair and Melis. Leo & Mrs. and Mrs. Helen Granville Barker. All went away pleasantly. After she left made cocktails and Peter joined Elizabeth's car and I gave the driver before they went out to dinner.
With Ian and Angela. According of North Land read by T. S. Eliot beautiful sound but sounded languages. After dinner did Peter's accounts. Decided to let him draw on his capital direct on advice of bank.

had an interesting time seeing Mrs. Eliza Parsons of Cheshire and her little plant. Wabunga was wakened night planning to go to office. Left 7.30 + treated my

Monday January 10
Worked in dressing gown with me at 7.30. She is on the high attention and with the intent of the old family servant. Did my usual morning routine and finished just before 8.
Time 7.45 when the hired car came to take us to station.
No excess on our fare either on but we did get our gate on going across all most conspicuously. I came out at us full. I had a cup of cocoa milk in morning. I enjoyed my attention at 10.00 and got on board boat and into cabin with the greatest comfort Perfectly sympathetic crewing and C. not at all back. Good luncheon on train and customs examination.
At Paris Jacques met us on platform and Mrs W. call at bureau. To apartment in car. Jacques with luggage to Hotel Capot Haines where Madame Clavier greeted us and in After breakfast read letters - one from John about del Vago and one from Denis who is getting impatient at inconclusiveness of my letters. Discussed position with L. who thinks I have written him too much and too quietly.

Read Michael. G. got a letter from travellers at work enjoying little cat. Not going up high and will be succeeded so may not spoil view from G's window. To check on G. took off some chair covers and found quite good leather covering.
After lunch read Michael and then went to bed. G. up first and at 10:15 P.M. in bed before I got up.
After and I had tea and discussed his friends + David's work. Peter back + forth to + from his house throat and decided to stay in bed. Monday, December 18 after 10 Did not have a bath. Took Refudas tablets and used Refudas inhaler. Spent morning copying P's letter to Dennis. Finished copy lunch, and sent it to Dennis for Miss Cook to type. Also called with letters etc.

G. writing letters and sending cards. She went out shopping this morning. Tried on my brown velvet jacket. Much too heavy. The bath ended and I slept deeply. Tea and increased work situation and Achilles at Brussels. John sent me Harry's name report as Russian name. Who will use Russian propaganda now?
Worked on Times & read G. to Moulin's party for Dorothy Thompson. I thought dinner.
Finished & went with our quaintest words. G. came home at 12 conscious of some throat and bronchitis. Friday, December 22 all night which I tried to treat with faith as well as Ripon's alarm clock and repeated tablets. Seemed no worse but no question of getting up.

Mrs Cushman brought breakfast I had no bath. looked at papers They did all morning and pain in throat and chest diminished.
C. did not go out. Anselm's call.
C. and said that's failed in condition at Sadler's Wells. I said that did not count as they were in money difficulties and making no new engagements. Thotie came to enquire, looking very harassed and C. felt discouraged and did not tell her about Sadler's Wells.
I went after my luncheon in bed all afternoon and felt really better when C. came in for the evening by Mrs. Ripon. C. told me all about Thotie. Then about Diana de Poyoult who came the A.M. & wanted to have cottage again. C. refused because of dirt, beating and dog Ray. Mrs Cushman & Thotie came to check about dinner.

read de Castro. Then visited. Got up for tea. Peter received for his left from Angela Brock and his tea from his last place with Hillier. Seems an attempt. I began to feel chilly and went back to bed also read de Castro before and after dinner in bed. Just feel that Peter shot. G. listened to news and came in to talk G. m. Seems hopeless for our civilization if not our lives.

Woke 4.30 with a little rawness in my throat as if I had been in a draught. Sunday, December 24. Seemed to feel air from above and pushed it nearly shut. Depressed my mood situation. Hardly slept again. Kelly called me at 8 and I got up & changed but no bath. I insisted on a light breakfast. Mrs. Warden made my bed while I went into C's room. Read de Castro half way thro getting better. C. & Bill

Memoranda

1. The first part of the memorandum should be a clear statement of the purpose of the document. This should be followed by a brief summary of the facts and circumstances surrounding the issue. The body of the memorandum should then present the analysis and recommendations. The conclusion should be a concise statement of the findings and the recommended course of action.

2. The second part of the memorandum should be a detailed description of the problem or issue. This should include a clear statement of the problem, a description of the facts and circumstances, and a discussion of the potential causes and consequences. The analysis should then identify the key issues and the options available for addressing the problem. The recommendations should be based on a careful evaluation of the options and should be clearly stated.

3. The third part of the memorandum should be a detailed description of the proposed solution. This should include a clear statement of the solution, a description of the facts and circumstances, and a discussion of the potential benefits and costs. The analysis should then identify the key issues and the options available for implementing the solution. The recommendations should be based on a careful evaluation of the options and should be clearly stated.

4. The fourth part of the memorandum should be a detailed description of the implementation plan. This should include a clear statement of the plan, a description of the facts and circumstances, and a discussion of the potential benefits and costs. The analysis should then identify the key issues and the options available for implementing the plan. The recommendations should be based on a careful evaluation of the options and should be clearly stated.
